QUARTER SCORES

GOSNELLS:

6.0 11.9 16.14 Final 25.20

KENWICK:

1.3 3.3 3.5 Final 3.5

The winners gave a fine exhibition of team work. But for the determined play of Aldersea at centre half back, Gosnell's winning margin would have been considerably greater.

Best players: Gosnells, Taylor, Kieley, Colgan, Edwards; Kenwick, D. Aldersea, D. Liddelow, J. Ridley.

Goal kickers: Gosnells, Taylor 5, Devine, O'Connell, Woodward 4 each, K. Passmore, M. Vukatich, T. Flynn 2 each, K. Ferries, T. Edwards 1 each; Kenwick, E. Philp, K. Carruthers, J. Ridley 1 each.

CANNING NOTES

The Canning club will hold a dance at Wyong Oval on Friday, July 13. The president, Fred Watson, advises that a cordial welcome will be extended to all.

Ross Taylor did not last long last Sunday; he played the third quarter against Pinjarra, injured his leg and retired.

The league team skipper, John Hilton, also came off in the final term and was replaced by F. Kersley. However, Hilton is certain to be available for the return game against Mandurah at Rushton Park today.

Best players: Armadale, C. Hills, M. Green, A. Green; Mandurah, A. Jamieson, D. Moffitt, B. Smedley.

KENWICK CLUB NOTES

The cabaret dance at the agricultural hall was very successful, and the social committee must be congratulated on a very fine effort.

John Oliver is doing excellent work with the junior team and his boys rewarded him on Saturday with a double victory over Armadale. Although John has been in hospital for a fortnight, he was moving around the boundary giving sound advice for both matches.

The club is glad to see "Douga" Aldersea back in the team, playing his first game for the season. He took top honours for Kenwick.

DESPITE INJURIES, CANNING WIN WELL

Despite injuries, Canning easily defeated Pinjarra at Wyong Oval last Sunday afternoon, in conditions which were almost perfect for the league game.

Final scores:

Canning 23 goals 19 behinds (157 points); Pinjarra 6 goals 8 behinds (44 points).

Both teams started with 17 men. Canning were minus the services of J. McQuade, J. Worth, R. Chant and Cliff Noble through injuries, while A. Smith was under suspension for misdemeanours in the Armadale match the previous weekend.

Sharp shooter, Ken Baxter, with 11 goals, was the main contributor to Canning's high goal margin, as compared with the visiting Pinjarra side.

Pinjarra rallied in the third quarter and scored as good as their opposition, each side putting on at least five goals.

Best players: Canning, N. Giles, R. Hayward, K. Baxter, R. Davis,

P. Baxter and N. Grant; Pinjarra, K. Nancarrow, B. Shields, A. Abramham.

Goal kickers: Canning, K. Baxter 11, R. Taylor 3, V. Dann, W. Fisher 2 each, K. Timms, P. Baxter, G. Fogarty, R. Dennis, N. Grant one each; Pinjarra, B. Shields 3, T. Brown, B. Rowcroft, K. Townsend one each.

PLAYERS WARNED

After sitting for its third Wednesday night in succession, the Protests and Disputes Board of the South Suburban-Murray Football League requested the secretary, Mr. R. Blackburn, to issue a warning on possible penalties likely to be inflicted on players; especially in regard to seconds matches, for striking an opposing player.

The board said it was disturbing at the number of players being charged for this offence.

On Wednesday night, C. Watts (Hills team) was suspended for having struck R. Bryant, of Maddington, in the seconds match at Maddington last Sunday. He was reported by central umpire R. Quade-Smith.

THE HAWKS' REPORT

It was with much reluctance that club members and players bade farewell to league player, Ron Phillips, who left for the Eastern States last weekend.

A prominent player this season, Ron was presented with a travelling rug after training one evening. He takes with him the best wishes of players, members and all supporters.

An official for the junior footballers has announced that the stall held last week was very successful. They wish to thank all donors, particularly the Blossom Florists for their donation towards the raffle.

It has been a lucky week for club members, Mrs. Kieley, snr., Carol Matison and Phil Markham, winners of the recent fund-raising effort.

Our kindred sports, the girls' hockey club, announce that they are holding a dance in the Church of England Hall, on Friday night,

July 13. The footballers, too, are holding a dance on July 27.

Black eyes seem to be the latest craze in the club; Noel O'Connell and Bob Rayment are among the unlucky possessors.

ARMADALE REPORTS

Last Sunday, the Demons were not the same team that had extended Canning the previous week. With the exception of a few players, the whole team seemed to lapse. If it had not been for the sterling efforts of K. Miller, G. Cyprian, and T. Guthrie, Mandurah could have run out winners by a greater margin.

Without the services of players of the calibre of R. Anderson (cleared to Albany) and their captain-coach, W. Onions, the Demons seemed a little unbalanced and never really settled down. However, the feeling in the camp is that it is on again next week and a much better showing is assured.

MADDINGTON NOTES

Inaccurate kicking by Maddington was a disappointing feature of the match against Hills at Maddington last Sunday and the half time scores, 4.17 to 0.6, were indicative of this bad fault.

After a "blistering" pep talk by coach, Pat Daly, at the long interval, Maddington did much better in the third and fourth quarters and won 16.25 to 1.10.

Main goal scorers: Maddington, P. Coulthard 4, B. Clark 3, D. Jennings 3, D. Penfold 2.

Best players: Maddington, W. Cahill, G. Campbell, D. Jennings, D. Campbell and P. Daly; Hills, R. Dalton, K. Marham, M. Graham.

SECONDS PLAY WELL

Our seconds team continues to play well and Sunday's victory, 17.11 to 6.12, against Hills, gave them seven victories out of eight matches; this is considered to be a record for them.

Much of the credit for their success is due to coach Dave Jennings who, as a past master of the game, is doing a fine job.

VETERAN RETIRES

Utility player and club secretary, Les Thorn, notified the selectors before the Hills game that he was no longer available for selection; pressure of business made it difficult for him to train.

Les has played in every position on the field during his football career and won our "best utility player" trophy on a few occasions.

He has played 139 league games, which is more than any other player has recorded for the club so far.

RUNAWAY WIN

Pinjarra had no chance of holding the much stronger Canning side in the seconds match at Wyong Oval last Sunday.

Canning scored 24.13 as against a mere 2.2 (14 points) by Pinjarra.

Goal kickers: Canning, A. Gaunt 11, K. Bolton 7, W. Bosio 2, J. Carter, A. Treasure, H. Turner, N. Turvey one each.

Best players: Canning, W. Bosio, A. Gaunt, P. Cushing; Pinjarra, C. Salter, K. Wren, J. Kearing.

DON GLASS FOR PINJARRA

Prominent Subiaco player, Don Glass, has applied for a clearance from his city club to Pinjarra.

He played his 150th game for Subiaco last Saturday.

Don is stationed at Pinjarra as a member of the police force at that centre.

CORRECTION

In our last week's issue it was stated that B. Mathison (Gosnells) had been suspended for two playing dates.

This was incorrect.

Mathison was cautioned for disputing the umpire's decision, suspended for one playing date for using abusive language and for two playing dates for having struck a player during the course of the match.

HILLS PLAYER CHARGED

C. Watts, of the Hills club, appeared before the South Suburban-Murray League Protests and Disputes Board on Wednesday night.

He was charged by central umpire, R. Quade-Smith, with having struck R. Bryant, of Maddington, in the seconds match at Dwellingup last Sunday.

LEAGUE MEETING

The next league meeting will take place at Serpentine, on Friday, July 20, when the venue of this season's final round is likely to be decided.

Gosnells and Pinjarra grounds were used in the past two seasons. Last year there was support for Armadale's Gwynne Park.

Canning club has made its Wyong ground available free of charge for any final round games this year.

KELMSCOTT'S PERCENTAGE SUFFERS

Kelmscott's atrocious kicking for goals, as indicated by the scores, 18.28, and without counting the out of bounds kicks, did not help that club's percentage in the game against Waroona on the Kelmscott ground last Sunday.

However, some excellent play by the back line helped to compensate for this lapse.

Kelmscott's best players were Bosustow, Polosi, Walsh, McGilvray and Ennis.

McGilvray and Fancote each kicked four goals.

The club has suffered a great loss with the transfer of schoolteacher Graham Kingston to Toodyay.

Graham is coach of the under-15 side and is very popular with both players and supporters alike, and the club wishes him well at his new school. He will travel from Toodyay each Saturday to be with the youngsters for the rest of the season.

Kelmscott's seconds were defeated after a close game in which Waroona fought back strongly, after trailing at three-quarter time.

John Miller, who returned after two years absence, played a great game in defence and won the club award.

Others to show out were Lawson, McKay and Slodecki.

All club members regretted that coach, "Sonny" Maffina was unable to travel to Waroona owing to an attack of tonsilitis. Nevertheless, it is hoped that he will be available for the Hills game.
